

Sample Arbitration Procedures

International Import–Export Transactions

DOCUMENT STATUS	SAMPLE / DEMONSTRATION
DOCUMENT TYPE	ARBITRATION PROCEDURES
VERSION	1.0

Professional Note

This document is a structured demonstration sample prepared from the supplied arbitration-procedures content. It is intended for presentation and administrative reference only. It does not constitute legal advice, an executed agreement, or a substitute for transaction-specific legal drafting. Applicable commercial terms, governing law, dispute mechanisms, arbitrator appointment provisions, venue, language, evidence requirements and enforcement arrangements should be reviewed and confirmed by the appropriate legal and commercial representatives before use.

Contents

Arbitration procedure sections included in this sample document.

01	Purpose	3
02	Negotiation	3
03	Notice of Dispute	3
04	Appointment	3
05	Seat	4
06	Language	4
07	Evidence	4
08	Hearings	4
09	Interim Relief	5
10	Confidentiality	5
11	Costs	5
12	Award	5
13	Enforcement	6
14	Miscellaneous	6

Editing note: The uploaded source repeated each clause twice. For professional presentation, the duplicate copy of each clause has been removed; the original section names and substantive sample wording have been retained.

01

1. Purpose

This sample clause describes Purpose for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

02

2. Negotiation

This sample clause describes Negotiation for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

03

3. Notice of Dispute

This sample clause describes Notice of Dispute for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

04

4. Appointment

This sample clause describes Appointment for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

05

5. Seat

This sample clause describes Seat for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

06

6. Language

This sample clause describes Language for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

07

7. Evidence

This sample clause describes Evidence for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

08

8. Hearings

This sample clause describes Hearings for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

09

9. Interim Relief

This sample clause describes Interim Relief for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

10

10. Confidentiality

This sample clause describes Confidentiality for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

11

11. Costs

This sample clause describes Costs for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

12

12. Award

This sample clause describes Award for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

13

13. Enforcement

This sample clause describes Enforcement for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

14

14. Miscellaneous

This sample clause describes Miscellaneous for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

Sample Notice

Demonstration only; not legal advice. Review and adapt this document for the specific transaction, jurisdiction and dispute-resolution arrangement before execution.