

Sample Terms & Conditions

International Import–Export Transactions

DOCUMENT STATUS	SAMPLE / DEMONSTRATION
DOCUMENT TYPE	TERMS & CONDITIONS
VERSION	1.0

Important Notice

This document is a demonstration sample and is not legal advice or a final contract. Commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities should be confirmed in writing before execution.

Contents

The following sections form the structure of this sample international trade policy.

01	Definitions	3
02	Scope	3
03	Quotations	3
04	Orders	3
05	Pricing	4
06	Payment Terms	4
07	Incoterms	4
08	Inspection	4
09	Quality	5
10	Packaging	5
11	Delivery	5
12	Risk Transfer	5
13	Export Documentation	6
14	Import Compliance	6
15	Force Majeure	6
16	Confidentiality	6
17	Intellectual Property	7
18	Liability	7
19	Termination	7
20	Governing Law	7

Document note: The supplied source contained repeated duplicate wording within several clauses. For a cleaner professional presentation, the repeated duplicate paragraphs have been consolidated while preserving the substantive sample wording and section structure.

01

1. Definitions

This sample clause describes Definitions for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

02

2. Scope

This sample clause describes Scope for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

03

3. Quotations

This sample clause describes Quotations for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

04

4. Orders

This sample clause describes Orders for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

05

5. Pricing

This sample clause describes Pricing for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

06

6. Payment Terms

This sample clause describes Payment Terms for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

07

7. Incoterms

This sample clause describes Incoterms for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

08

8. Inspection

This sample clause describes Inspection for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

09

9. Quality

This sample clause describes Quality for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

10

10. Packaging

This sample clause describes Packaging for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

11

11. Delivery

This sample clause describes Delivery for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

12

12. Risk Transfer

This sample clause describes Risk Transfer for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

13

13. Export Documentation

This sample clause describes Export Documentation for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

14

14. Import Compliance

This sample clause describes Import Compliance for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

15

15. Force Majeure

This sample clause describes Force Majeure for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

16

16. Confidentiality

This sample clause describes Confidentiality for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

17. Intellectual Property

This sample clause describes Intellectual Property for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

18. Liability

This sample clause describes Liability for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

19. Termination

This sample clause describes Termination for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

20. Governing Law

This sample clause describes Governing Law for international import-export transactions. All commercial terms, specifications, shipment schedules, documentation, payment obligations, inspection requirements and buyer responsibilities are intended to be confirmed in writing before execution. This section is drafted to resemble a professional corporate policy for demonstration purposes only.

Sample Notice

Demonstration only; not legal advice. This sample should be reviewed and adapted by the appropriate commercial and legal representatives before use in an executed transaction.